

I do not want to see LPFM frequencies displace regular FM transmissions. I frequently listen to K-LOVE radio on 91.9 in my local area. This radio station provides positive and uplifting music with a good, clean message to it. I often see bumper stickers in my town advertising this station. It serves a very large community where such programming is very much needed.